Dave Goldstein

West New York, NJ 07093

Dave was the featured entertainment for our company Christmas party.

He was very funny and intelligent at the same time. I could tell he had done his homework before he came to our area, because he used local input for his show. Also he kept in mind this was a company event and catered to that atmosphere staying within the boundaries that I had requested of him.

I would recommend Dave as a comedian and feel he will rise to the top of the entertaining industry!

Sincerely,

Renee Kendall
