Dave,

I wanted to thank you again for making comedy night at Shomrei Torah a success.

I am not sure if it was your name recognition or the need for comedy, however we really packed the room. Not only did people have a good laugh, we were able to raise some much needed funds. Having booked many performers, what I have to say sets you apart is that you were able to quickly assess the room and identify with your audience (not an easy task when you have such a diverse age group) while making the audience feel as if you are just one of them stepping up to tell funny stories and jokes.

Dave, I would not hesitate to ask you back again and would be happy to act as a reference. As you know, two people in the audience have already inquired for their organizations.

Best regards,

Lonnie Helfand
